Does Judaism have a theology of other religions? Emphatically, yes. Judaism has a wide range of texts that offer thoughts on other religions. In my book, Many Nations under God: Judaism and other Religions, I present the broad range of traditional sources bearing on this question of the theological relationship between Judaism and other religions.

The Old Testament is a collection of writings that was first compiled and preserved as the sacred books of the ancient Hebrew people. As the Bible of the Hebrews and their Jewish descendants down to the present, these books have been perhaps the most decisive single factor in the preservation of the Jews as a cultural entity and Judaism as a religion.

The Emmaus story is well-known: Two disciples downcast by the death of Jesus, and confused by reports that his body is missing, are walking from Jerusalem to Emmaus. They encounter a stranger who listens to their concerns, then gives them a Scripture lesson that makes their "hearts burn within them".. Finally, as they share the evening meal, he breaks bread and they recognise him.

The Voodoo Macbeth The Voodoo Macbeth (1936) is a stage play directed by Orson Welles, a famous, much acclaimed version of Macbeth with an all-black cast. The play's finale was filmed as part of the WPA documentary We Work Again (1937). It is unclear if Welles had anything to do with directing the film version.

Hooray? Philpots is also married, so much like in 50 First Dates, her husband has to remind her of their union every time she wakes up by showing her their wedding album. Luckily, the two had already been dating for several years before Philpots' amnesia developed, so unlike Drew Barrymore, she isn't waking up every morning next to a total stranger (who is also Adam Sandler).

105 Comments. Brother Nathanael September 8, 2010 @ 8:07 pm. Dear Real Zionist News Family - The Jews OWN America. Jews are in EVERY sphere of influence in America. Jews in places of influence are primarily thinking to themselves (I grew up as a Jew and I KNOW how Jews think)"how will this benefit the Jews?" — "What must I do to prevent Jews being under the Goyim?"
