Instead of being an expected Fallout 3 remaster or a New Vegas sequel, Fallout 76 was a surprise announcement in the run-up to this year's E3. While opinions were originally divided about such a stark contrast to what players have come to love about Fallout, Bethesda looks to change that as it pushes the envelope further. Not content with being an MMO to rival the rest and ditching its standard ...

Although robots could fulfill the space left behind by a lack of NPCs, the colorful casts of bandits and mutants have helped make Fallout as popular as it is today. That being said, robots have proven to be just as entertaining at times during the franchise history and who can forget memorable (and sometimes murderous) machines like Fallout 4's snooty Codsworth and New Vegas' sharp-shooting ...

Parents need to know that Fallout 4 is an exceptionally violent role-playing game set in a postapocalyptic future with first- and third-person combat involving guns, swords, grenades, and even miniature nuclear explosives. Time frequently slows to show bodies blown to bloody, gory bits that remain where they fall rather than disappearing.
