Lives Lessons Learned Personal Reflections

We all come across various difficulties in our lives. However, not all of us handle them as effectively as we should. As strategies for getting through life's problems are rarely formally learned, we are constrained to use trial and error, sometimes leading to sub-optimal results.

First, I would recommend that you draw for at least a couple of months before you attempt painting. I have four drawing exercises on this site - Contour, Mass, Gesture, and Mechanics of Drawing - that are good for beginners. I also have lessons in Figure Drawing and Perspective for Artists, that are available for a small fee.If you plan to paint occasionally as a hobby, I would suggest using ...

Pierre-Auguste Renoir, (born February 25, 1841, Limoges, France—died December 3, 1919, Cagnes), French painter originally associated with the Impressionist movement. His early works were typically Impressionist snapshots of real life, full of sparkling colour and light. By the mid-1880s, however, he had broken with the movement to apply a more disciplined, formal technique to portraits and ...

COMMENTARY CRITICAL AND EXPLANATORY JAMIESON, FAUSSET, BROWN. James Rosscup - This is a helpful old set of 1863 for laypeople and pastors to have because it usually comments at least to some degree on problems. Though terse, it provides something good on almost any passage, phrase by phrase and is to some degree critical in nature.
