Shadows Of A Literary Dialect

I. What is Personification? Sometimes the sun smiles, the wind whispers to the trees, and the shadows of the leaves dance in the wind. Although literally, the sun cannot smile, the leaves cannot dance without legs, and the wind cannot whisper because it doesn't have a mouth, we apply human characteristics and create these metaphors to describe a scene.

Wayne Cooper. As used in the 1920's, the term "New Negro" referred to more than the writers then active in the Negro Renaissance. The New Negro also included the Negro masses and especially the young. "For the younger generation," Alain Locke wrote in 1925, "is vibrant with a new psychology."

"Claude McKay and the New Negro of the 1920's"

Claude McKay, born Festus Claudius McKay, was a key figure in the Harlem Renaissance, a prominent literary movement of the 1920s. His work ranged from vernacular verse celebrating peasant life in Jamaica to poems challenging white authority in America, and from generally straightforward tales of black life in both Jamaica and America to more philosophically ambitious fiction addressing ...
