The Hudson Beavers Build A

The beaver (genus Castor) is a large, primarily nocturnal, semiaquatic rodent. Castor includes two extant species, the North American beaver (Castor canadensis) (native to North America) and Eurasian beaver (Castor fiber) (). Beavers are known for building dams, canals, and lodges (homes). They are the second-largest rodent in the world (after the capybara).

Have you ever noticed how many things we tend to take for granted? When we wake up in the morning and head to the bathroom to get ready for school, we don't give much thought to how we'll see in the dark. We just take it for granted that we'll flip the light switch and, like magic, the lights will ...

Although I have known for several weeks that the manual was finished (I work for one of the authors, after all!), I was waiting for the FHWA to post the link for the new manual before posting this...and now it is here! My friend, Randy Post, has an outside review (meaning not connected to one of the authors!) over at his blog Geoprac.net.. Not only did he get "the scoop" on me, but he ...
